

Cenacle Close

Complete contemporary refurbishment and addition to a Ted Levy house in keeping with the style of the original architecture. The ground floor space was reorganised, a utility room and bedroom were added and a new entrance created. The addition is half underground and to the site boundary and therefore lit with elegant strip roof lights. The modern kitchen by Bulthaup connects with the other ground floor functions. Sleek storage units throughout were an integral part of the wall design.