

Plough Mews

New build house with an extensive double storey basement and complete refurbishment of two connected mews properties designed for a respected British textile designer. The proposal creates a harmonious set of buildings within a prime mews to form a family home, retaining the features and character of the existing buildings. A courtyard garden unifies the property. The contemporary decorative interior will be completely bespoke throughout and finished to a high specification.