

Porchester Road

Complete contemporary refurbishment, including a glazed roof detail, of a detached Victorian property in West London. The rationalisation of the interior space was designed to a specific brief from the architect owner. All four floors feature solid oak flooring and bespoke furniture finished to a high specification throughout.